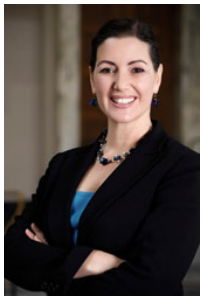
SAFE OAKLAND SPEAKER SERIES

IMPACT HUB



www.libbyschaaf.com
www.safeoakland.com

PRESENTED BY
LIBBY SCHAAF
OAKLAND CITY COUNCILMEMBER

SUNDAY JUNE 8
4PM TO 6PM

SAFETY IS A CIVIL RIGHT!

How did Los Angeles reduce violent crime by 81%
How will Oakland leverage community assets to build a comprehensive safety plan?

CONNIE RICE – Civil Rights Leader, Attorney, Co-founder of L.A.'s Advancement Project, and prominent leader in successful efforts to reform the LAPD and improve police-community relations. Connie Rice is renowned for her unconventional approaches to tackling problems of inequity and exclusion.

SUSAN K. LEE - Director of Urban Peace at the Advancement Project, California. Ms. Lee oversees the implementation of an Urban Peace agenda by building inter-agency and organizational coalitions in urban cities across the U.S.

CA SENATOR LONI HANCOCK – (9th Dist. - Berkeley, Oakland) social justice leader who advocates for investments in rehabilitation programs and economic development as well as educational reform, environmental protection and open government.

DAVID MUHAMMAD – CEO of Solutions Inc., a consulting firm focusing on juvenile and criminal justice issues. David has served as Chief Probation Officer of the Alameda County Probation Department and as Deputy Commissioner of New York City's Department of Probation.

A FREE COMMUNITY DIALOGUE ON PUBLIC SAFETY
FEATURING LEADING SCHOLARS AND PRACTITIONERS
@ IMPACTHUB OAKLAND - 2323 BROADWAY @23RD
More information: Bruce Stoffmacher, (510) 238-7004 or bstoffmacher@oaklandnet.com